2011 ATHENA AWARD NOMINATION DEADLINE LOOMS

Green Bay, Wis.- (Aug. 10, 2011) – Athena, daughter of Zeus and Greek goddess of wisdom, has long been identified as the symbol for community-building, smart decisions and female empowerment. If this runs in-line with a man or woman you know, nominate him or her for the 2011 ATHENA Award.

The ATHENA Award has been presented in the Green Bay area annually since 1985 to those who demonstrate outstanding commitment and excellence in their profession. The nominee must also contribute to the betterment of women and play an active role in community involvement, as well as possess a current membership to the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce or be employed by a member firm.

Last year's recipient was Julie Van Straten of UnitedHealthcare.

The award is sponsored by Wipfli LLP.

The nomination form is available at titletown.org and needs to be submitted by Friday, Aug. 19.

For more information, contact Lori Kaye Lodes at 920-593-3423 or llodes@titletown.org.
